

Discipline & Appeals : Fees & Summary of Details

The Appeals Procedure for Internal Incidents Involving One Association - $300

- If a member Association's decision is appealed to NCYSA, the NCYSA D&A chairperson or administrator will notify the member association upon receipt of the appropriate appeal paperwork. Appeals of a decision involving one Association will be heard by the NCYSA Executive Board.

Appeal the Sanction of an Ejection : $100

- The appeal process must go through the Association's DOC or D&A Liaison. The D&A Chairman will make a determination, based on the statements as well as the referee's supplemental report if there is sufficient cause to revise the sanction. If the Association still wishes to appeal, there is an Appeal form that must be completed, and sent to the State Office with a $100 non-refundable appeal fee.

NCYSA League Match Protest : $100

- The person filing the protest will be notified of the preliminary decision. The preliminary decision is binding. An appeal may be filed within seven (7) days of receipt of the decision. The appeal must be in writing with a $100.00 (certified check or money order), stating the reason for the appeal, and mailed to the State Office (address listed above). The appeal will go to the NCYSA Executive Board.

Incidents Involving NCYSA Hosted Tournaments : $100

- Protests must be made in writing no more than one hour after the conclusion of the match being protested, and the protest must be accompanied by $100 in cash. The $100 will only be returned if the protest is upheld.

Transfer & Recruitment Policy Violations : $5,000

- The Club found to have a player illegally playing for any of their associated teams must submit a formal statement to the NCYSA Discipline & Appeals Chairperson concerning the violation. Should the Club be found guilty of the violation the club / organization will be issued a $5,000 fine for breach of this policy.
